1. Chairmans welcome.

Chairman Cllr Meade welcomed everyone.

Public forum had been extended to 35 minutes after which the Parish Council meeting commenced. Moulton Park and the proposed play area had been topic of discussion, it was reported that the recent report done on Moulton Park by a representative of SHDC, was not put forward at the last SHDC planning meeting and hopefully it will get discussed at the next one.

2. Apologies:

- a. None received.

3. Declarations of interest.

- a. None received.

4. Notes of the meeting held on 6th February 2018 had been circulated. It was resolved to accept these notes as a true copy of the minutes.

5. Citizen of The Year.

- a. Councillors will arrange a date to discuss the nominations in full and report their comments at the next meeting

6. Speeding meeting.

- a. The Clerk had attended the speeding meeting held at Cowbit Village Hall on 5th March. Discussions had taken place between all those who attended and the outcome was that there is no extra funding for Traffic Calming throughout the area. Each Parish Council can, if they want, take on board the Road Safety Partnership guidance of attending to their own speeding problems by getting volunteers to sign up for training on the speed devices. The new coordinator for Lincolnshire, is due to start in May 2018 and he will begin to put programmes and training together for the volunteers. More information as and when available will be reported at the Council meetings.

7. Cemetery, churchyard & allotments.

- a. There had been several funerals take place throughout February and many plots had also been reserved.
